All Roads Lead To Counties Fair

Petaluma's Big Show Will Feature Parade Today and Tomorrow. Sonoma Products Win Medals.

All roads lead to the Marin-Sonoma Counties Fair and Egg Show now in progress at Petaluma.

The Fair is being held at Kenelworth Park where all the produce and live stock are on display, where the concessions afford plenty of amusement, and horse racing and other sports are proving popular with the immense crowds.

Among the exhibitors in the produce tent is Sonoma Valley with a small but creditable display of fruit, grain, cheese, butter, corn, and canned fruits. The Jack cheese of the Sonoma Mission Creamery was awarded a gold medal while Valley of the Moon brand apples, and prunes grown by Wm. Helberg Sr., got blue ribbon special awards. In the manufacturing tent, the Sonoma Incubator, patented and built by Kitchen Bros. of this place received a gold medal from the judges. Mr. H. H. Hunt is in charge of this exhibit and Mr. Borie presides over the Sonoma Valley fruit display.

Today and tomorrow will be the days of the big parade, one of the finest ever seen in Northern California. The floats will number 118 and most of them are being built by professionals. Sonoma Valley is entering a handsome float which was designed and built by E. T. Murphy of the Capital Decorating Co. of San Francisco. It depicts the Valley of the Moon, with a little girl perched on the Moon while all about her are golden cornucopias, pouring forth the fruits and flowers for which Sonoma Valley is famous.

Several children will be on the float representing various attractions of the valley. The float will be drawn by four horses, through the courtesy of Mr. Adams, Petaluma contractor. The parade forms today at 10:00 o'clock, and tomorrow, (Sunday) will be repeated at 2:00 o'clock, the final grand review to terminate in the award of the $500 prize for the best float.

Thursday evening the newspaper fraternity and moving picture people were guests of Mrs. Jack London at a little dinner in Petaluma which was notable for the talented group of guests, including the celebrity, Frank McGlynn, of the famous play of Abraham Lincoln. Mrs. London presided over the gathering with her usual gracious manner and Mr. McGlynn gave the poet, Markham's masterpiece on Lincoln in his inspired style. Mrs. McGlynn and Miss Mary Rose McGlynn, who was chosen the pretty young queen of the fair, were also present. Sonoma Valley was represented by Mrs. London, her nephew, Irving Shepard and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy.

FIRE BENEFIT BIG SUCCESS

The benefit Thursday night for the final payment on the Valley Angel was a big success and will go a long way toward making the final payment on the fire engine, which is a friend of all Sonoma Valley. Chief W. B. Cause expects to have it shortly.

SONOMA BANKS WILL FINANCE DAIRYMEN

Co-operating in the pure bred bull campaign, the banks of Sonoma will loan money to dairymen who have not sufficient money to put a pure bred sire at the head of their herds. Twenty-five dollars down and a year's time at 6 per cent are the easy terms offered by the banks to help the dairy campaign movement succeed in Northern California, so Prof. Negley of the U. C. Agricultural Department announces.

BELOVED MOTHER PASSES TO THE GREAT BEYOND

Mrs. Mildred Hanger Claimed By Death As She Slept Friday Afternoon of Last Week.

Mrs. Mildred Hanger, wife of William Hanger and mother of Mrs. Rea Hunter, passed away very suddenly Friday afternoon of last week, death coming to her as she slept on the couch of the family living room. Although a sufferer from chronic heart trouble, she had no recent attacks and had been apparently in exceptional health and good spirits. Friday, the afternoon of her death, she knew that Mrs. Hunter was going out to a club trustees' meeting at the Hays home, and requested that her little granddaughter, Virginia, be sent out to play with a neighbor's child, so that she could take a quiet nap. It proved to be eternal rest for the beloved mother and devoted grandmother, for some time during the absence of her loved ones, the Angel of Death came and enfolded her. A neighbor, Miss Eda Gillen, called in during the afternoon and receiving no response at the door of the hospitable home, noticed through the window Mrs. Hanger on the couch, apparently asleep. Not wishing to disturb her, she quietly departed. Sometime later, Mrs. Hunter returned home and becoming alarmed at her mother's long sleep, sought to arouse her. Her efforts proved unavailing, and she then realized that death had come during her absence. A physician, neighbors and loving hands sought in vain to detect a spark of life, but she was beyond all mortal help.

Mildred Bear Hanger was a native of Virginia, and was born June 30, 1858. She was a true daughter of the South with vivacity, charm of manner and hospitality unbounded. She married Mr. Hanger in 1879 and their home here has been one of the most hospitable in the Sonoma Valley. She had resided in Sonoma since 1904, coming here from Petaluma. The pretty home, occupied jointly with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rea Hunter, has been a great pleasure to her. She lived to see her daughters and grandchildren grow up and attain honor and success, and was proud of their accomplishments. Her daughter, Pearl Hanger Hunter, is the president of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club and has two talented children; her other daughter, Mrs. Campbell Pomeroy, of Santa Rosa, grew up to beautiful womanhood and is the mother of Gordon Pomeroy and of Miss Virginia Pomeroy, the accomplished dancer and participant in pageants. She had the devotion of a good husband and brought him through recent serious illness. Hers was a life filled with interest and she lived to see fulfilled many of her fond dreams and ambitions. Cheerful and robust to the last, she passed out at her allotted hour mourned by family and friends who will ever treasure her memory. Mrs. Hanger affiliated with the Presbyterian church some years

Mystery Of Fire Being Probed

The tragic death of George Bruns, a respected poultryman of El Verano, who met his death early Sunday evening when he was burned to death in a fire which destroyed his ranch house is yet unsolved. James Moore has been charged with murder and arson in connection with the Bruns mystery, following the coroner's inquest, the jury bringing in a verdict Monday afternoon recommending that all due inquiry be made into the circumstances surrounding the strange case. The jury held death to be "from unknown causes."

The inquest bristled with sensations, no small part of which was furnished by the man suspected of the crime. This man, James Moore, testified that he was in Bruns' home Sunday evening and found Bruns, who was a cripple, dead drunk on the bed of his room. Moore and his wife went out to gather eggs on the Bruns place and while thus engaged, detected the fire. They ran to the house, so Moore claims and he entered a window and tried to arouse Bruns. The drunken man did not heed the warning to get out, but flatly refused to leave the house, although told it was in flames. Moore himself got out and left Bruns in the burning cottage. Before help arrived, the building and body were burned almost beyond recognition. One side of Bruns' skull, however, remained intact and revealed a beveled cut in the parietal region over the left ear. Dr. W. B. Hays testified to this wound, and the coroner's jury, in viewing the remains, took note of it. Moore's theory of the tragedy is that Bruns wanted to die and committed suicide by deliberately setting fire to the house.

He testified that on one occasion he had taken a gun away from Bruns who was threatening suicide by shooting himself.

Margaret Moore, wife of the accused, was called to the witness stand and told of the numerous visits to the Bruns place just previous and on the night of the tragedy. She said Bruns had often told her his troubles and clung to her for sympathy. At one time he offered to give her his jewelry, but she refused to accept it. She recited the visit to the Bruns place on Sunday evening, the finding of him intoxicated, the gathering of the eggs, the discovery of the fire and the attempt made by her husband to get Bruns to leave the burning building. She told of going down to the road with their car, giving the alarm and asking help from passersby.

Other witnesses at the coroner's inquest were W. Chester, who had visited Bruns on Saturday; Mr. Gavin, who helped take the remains from the fire; Undertaker Bates and C. Bruns of San Francisco, brother of the victim of the tragedy. Coroner Phillips gave the brother every opportunity to question any of the witnesses or to bring out any testimony which he thought might clear up the mystery of George Bruns' death, but the brother asked no questions, evidently being entirely satisfied as to the manner of conducting the inquest.

A. McGill, a neighbor who came a mile to the fire, testified that when he reached the Bruns house, the bedroom was not yet in flames and had been there ten minutes sooner, could have dragged Bruns out. C. Hummel, another neighbor, testified that Bruns never was a drinking man until he became intimate with Moore, a newcomer to the Sonoma Valley, where he has conducted a soft drink parlor for the past four months.

Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan testified as to the arrest of Moore and also to the finding of an implement resembling a

The old town is beginning to wake up and the main issue with our leading political bosses this week, on every corner, in the hotel lobbies and the business houses is the picking of winners for the various state and county offices. Hiram Johnson is the choice for senator and from the appearance of the fight for the sheriff's office at the present time, John Boyes, the incumbent, will carry every precinct in Sonoma Valley. For assessor Hoke Smith, incumbent, will poll a large vote in these parts, while the district attorney's fight and that of superintendent of schools looks like an even break for any of the aspirants. John Mohr, candidate for the Sonoma constableness, has no opponent, but is making the rounds of the voters just the same, with a view to going after larger game in the future. The voters are proud of the physique of our coming officer and boasts that no other town in the state has a peace officer as good looking as our John. Mr. Mohr stands six feet high and weighs 200 pounds. He is the moving picture magnet of Sonoma Valley and will make an elegant cop. It is said that all the fair ones will poll their vote for John.

BOY DROWNED IN SWIMMING TANK

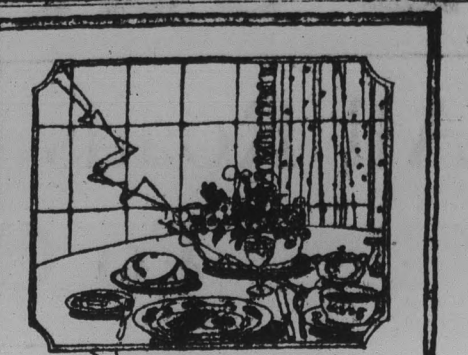

Daniel McLaughlin, an 11 year old Vallejo boy, was accidentally drowned in the small tank at Boyes Springs on last Sunday. He had been in the big tank with his father and when they got out of the tank and went to dress, the boy made his way to the smaller tank for a plunge, unknown to his parents. He could not swim and it is thought got into deep water and was drowned. No one else was in the small tank and it was not until after a search was made for the missing boy that his body was discovered. All attempts to resuscitate him failed.

Coroner Phillips held an inquest, finding the drowning to have been accidental after which the remains were taken to Vallejo for interment.

Facts About the County School Attendance Department

BEN F. BALLARD

Candidate For Re-Election

The average daily attendance in the schools of Sonoma County last year was increased sufficiently by the work of the SCHOOL ATTENDANCE OFFICER to give this County ten additional statutory teacher units. The ten units gave to the school fund of this County $700.00 each, of $7,000.00 from the State. In addition, it also brought from the State $4.76 per child on approximately 200 children, of $952.00. This is a total of $7952.00 gain to Sonoma County by reason of having an Attendance Officer. If this attendance had not been gained, the money would have been distributed to other Counties in the State.

The cost of maintaining the attendance department was $20,842.00. This cost is paid out of the school fund. No additional TAX is raised for this department. These facts show that it is good business to maintain an attendance department.

On the other hand, we cannot measure in dollars and cents the value of the opportunity given to these children in the protection of their rights to a full time attendance in school.—adv.

TATE FAMILY RETURN FROM TRIP TO CANADA

Mr. and Mrs. James Tate and family returned last Sunday from a three weeks' motor trip up North. They went over the Canadian border and spent some time at White Rock, a summer resort on Puget Sound. En route they visited relatives of Mr. Tate's at Wasco and had the pleasure of a reunion with Mr. Tate's sisters from New York and San Luis Obispo, the latter Miss Ruth Tate, who is well known here.

They found a great deal of road construction work being done in Oregon and made an 80 mile detour to visit Crater Lake in that state. It proved to be well worth while. The Columbia River Highway and the Washington Highway they pronounce very wonderful.

WRIGHT ACT WORSE THAN VOLSTEAD ACT

Defeat of the Wright Act in the November election by a greater majority of votes than resulted in the repudiation by the people of the Harris Act is predicted by E. Clemens Horst of San Francisco in a special article written for the Sacramento Bee.

Horst describes the Wright Act as a fine example of the attempt of our legislators to force upon the people, against their will, a law that they have repeatedly repudiated at the polls. The articles is as follows:

The purpose of this article is to help clear up a general misunderstanding as to the force and effect of the Wright Act, which is to be accepted or rejected by the voters at the November elections, and to invite an open discussion of this subject with any of the authors or leading proponents of the Wright Act.

The Wright Act would inflict upon California a "dry" law far more drastic than the existing Volstead Act, because it prohibits not only everything that the Volstead Act prohibits, including its prohibition on admittedly non-intoxicating beverages, but it would also prohibit everything that is prohibited by the Eighteenth Amendment and not prohibited by the Volstead Act.

There is no truth in the statement made in the first paragraph of the Wright Act, that the Eighteenth Amendment imposes a requirement that California enact the proposed law but even if there were any duty or requirement on the part of our state to adopt a law in accordance with the Eighteenth Amendment, it would not justify our Legislature in passing one that does not conform either to the amendment or to the Volstead Act.

Section 2 of the Wright Act provides that everything shall be prohibited that is prohibited either by the Volstead Act or by the Eighteenth Amendment; and therefore, the Wright Act would prohibit light wines and beer that are prohibited by the Volstead Act and not prohibited by the Eighteenth Amendment, and it would prohibit distilled liquors and wine for medicinal purposes, wine for sacramental purposes, as the Eighteenth Amendment makes no exception for such uses, and it would prohibit the removal of alcoholic beverages from one's old to a new residence, because the Eighteenth Amendment prohibits any transportation of prohibited beverages.

Furthermore, the present governmental permission that anyone may make 200 gallons of wine per annum for his own family use would also be prohibited.

There are many other things that would be prohibited under the Wright Act, that are now legalized, unless the Wright Act is rejected at the polls.

There is no truth in the claim that the Wright Act is so drawn that light wine and beer would be legalized in California upon such modification by congress of the existing Volstead Act nor would, under the Wright Act, those beverages be legalized at any time thereafter.

There is not a word in the Wright Act that says that, under any condition that may hereafter arise, any of the prohibitions of the existing Volstead Act shall be modified. The Wright Act adopts all the prohibitions mentioned in both the Volstead Act and the Eighteenth Amendment, and also adopts any future prohibitions by congress, without adopting any future modifications whatsoever.

If, for the sake of argument, it is assumed that the intent of the Wright Act is to make effective in California any future legalization by congress of wine and beer, such a condition would be of no benefit to us, as California cannot delegate its lawmaking power (and certainly not its power to make criminal laws) to any other legislative body, and especially not to a body, that has not yet been elected, or to one that is outside of the jurisdiction of California and in which California's representation is less than 4 per cent of the number.

The proponents of the Wright Act, no doubt, are well aware of that fact, because they have included in the Wright Act, Section No. 6, which provides:

"Section 6. Should any section or any portion of any section of this Act be found unconstitutional, the remainder shall continue in full force and effect. It being expressly declared that such is the intention."

It follows, therefore, that when congress legalizes wine and beer, our courts will forthwith be called upon to determine the constitutionality of the question above stated, and of course our courts cannot help but decide that our legislature had not right to accept in advance future legislation adopted by any other out of the state legislative body, namely, congress, and as a result, we will continue to have in full force and effect prohibition of wine and beer, though congress has legalized it.

If our legislature wished its legislation to conform to the will of the majority, it would have enacted a Volstead Act without including light wine and beer among those beverages prohibited by state legislation, and then (and not otherwise) when congress legalizes wine and beer, we would have the benefit of such modification of the existing prohibitory laws.

The Wright Act is a fine example of the attempt of our legislators to force upon the people, against their will, a law that they have repeatedly repudiated at the polls. Such action is in clear violation of the duty of legislators to respect the overwhelming majority vote of the people, as shown in the last four California state elections.

The Harris Act that was defeated at the last state election is now being forced upon the people for another vote, under the name of the Wright Act, on the claim that it modifies the Harris Act to meet the demand of the California public for light wines and beer.

It does nothing of the sort. The Wright Act is, as above shown, for worse than the well repudiated Harris Act, and will, no doubt, be defeated by a still larger majority.

Vote for Friend W. Richardson for Governor of California

OUR RECOMMENDATION AND YOUR VOTE FOR GOVERNOR

The Sonoma Index-Tribune for a long time has regarded the expense of running California with grave concern and has been convinced that Governor Stephens' mismanagement has been a shameful failure, grossly extravagant and reckless in its insistence for appropriations and an army of state employees. Socially, Governor Stephens is a wonderfully fine, old gentleman, but as the head of a big business institution like the State of California, he cannot be commended—in fact, he should be made to give way to a successor with some regard for the welfare of the people who are paying the exorbitant bills for Governor Stephens' orgy of idealism. It is by rare good fortune that a man is available who can take the reins of government now held by the reckless executive at Sacramento and can bring solid business management into many big departments of state—this man, the present state treasurer, Friend W. Richardson, has consented to do the big job of getting California affairs on a sane basis and is a candidate for the governorship to succeed Stephens. Friend W. Richardson is a man we can consistently recommend for the task. He is not only competent but we vouch for his zeal to tackle and solve problems vital to the future welfare of California.

Elect Richardson governor and you will have a business man and trained official absolutely free of entangling political alliances.

Elect Richardson governor and you will have a governor of high ideals but so well balanced that he can retrench and economize without sacrificing anything of intrinsic worth in our state government.

Elect Richardson governor and you will have a man of stamina at Sacramento who will neither be led by the nose by women lobbyists nor bulldozed by powerful corporations.

Elect Richardson governor and you can be assured of the highest type of American citizenship at the head of California's official family; a man of unquestioned integrity and a code of honor which has made him the idol of every newspaper man and woman in the state.

What more can we say to our readers than this—just the gentle reminder to vote for Friend W. Richardson for Governor of California on August 29th and let him prove all we have said of him.

THE REAL MENACE

Ex-Congressman Randall, radical "dry", says:

"The anarchist who openly opposes all law and all constituted authority is not nearly so dangerous as the so-called respectable man who either ignorantly or maliciously seeks by subterranean methods to establish the reign of anarchy through the nullification of constitutions and laws because he does not happen to like the particular law or particular provision of the constitution which he attempts to nullify."

We would like to call the attention of Randall to the radical reformer as a dangerous element in American life—already through methods never before tolerated in the United States, people have been strait-jacketed into prohibition laws whose spirit and function are of the absolute monarchy type. American constitution and laws have been blasted and distorted by moral posing anarchists. What has been the result? Resentment which menaces the law and order of every state in the Union because it emanates from intelligent citizens and Americans of the highest type. Undesirable and ignorant individuals, who are a percentage in all movements, are also to be reckoned with and their activities against prohibition are overlooked, if not condoned, by a large percentage of desirables. Just as the "drys" have an incongruous ally in the money-making bootlegger, so has the prohibition lawbreaker sympathizers who would frown down the infraction of almost any law but prohibition. Hence the situation we all deplore and of which we ask correction.

HIGH OFFICE SEEKER A POOR MAN, BUT RICH IN FRIENDS AND TALENT

There's something akin to super-politics (as much as we dislike that word "super") in the campaign being made by the people of Sonoma County in behalf of Judge Emmet Seawell whom they would see elected to the state supreme bench. In truth it is not politics, for politics never did what the loyal friends and advocates of Seawell's candidacy are doing—putting up money for a campaign fund in order that all California may know of this just judge, this man of nobility of character and worth. Judge Seawell is a poor man. It is difficult for a poor man to attain high places in the judiciary or elsewhere unless he sells himself to some interest to get there. Judge Seawell would have stayed where he is for a lifetime rather than attain hopes by such means. The people who know him best realized their duty to Judge Seawell and to the State of California. They want all the people to have the benefit of such an exceptional jurist and as a result are providing by popular subscription the finances necessary to a successful campaign.

When citizens so stir themselves to better our institutions and interest themselves to such an extent in the Temple of Justice, the most avowed cynic must admit that our democracy is growing better.

MISS LOUISE CLARK CAMPAIGNS HERE

Miss Louise Clark, who is the Valley of the Moon candidate for county superintendent of schools, was in Sonoma this week in the interest of her candidacy.

She has taught school at Glen Ellen for two years, coming to California for her health some time previous. She is now a robust and fine looking school marm and seems eager for the battle at the polls with the incumbent, Ben Ballard.

Miss Clark is a graduate of Michigan State Normal College, the Teachers' College of New York and Columbia University. She held prominent positions, including the training of teachers in Philadelphia and New York. She has traveled extensively in Europe. Miss Clark makes her formal appeal to voters in another column of this issue.

SUBSTANTIAL ROAD IMPROVEMENTS

Among the substantial road improvements going on in Supervisor Fred Lowell's district are the two new concrete bridges on the Morris-Spreckels road. The bridges are 24 feet wide and add to the safety of travel on that side of the Sonoma Valley, besides improving the appearance of our roads.

The Fowler Creek bridge has recently been replanked and improvements also made on the Oak Grove road.

Messrs. Helberg and Revie, the efficient road overseers, have been superintending the jobs for the county.

Miss Verna Quartaroli will enter Heald's in Oakland, to train for a private secretary. Miss Quartaroli is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Quartaroli of the El Dorado Hotel.

ENGINEER'S REPORT ON BLACK POINT CUT-OFF

The following report by H. H. Jones, civil engineer and licensed land surveyor of San Rafael, Cal., in regard to the progress of construction work on the Black Point cut-off, has been received:

The following is the condition of the Grant-Smith Company contract on the Black Point cut-off, examination made August 8th showing the work as of August 7th, 1922:

There is a strip commencing at the Ignacio end of the work and running to a point within one-half mile of Black Point station that is 100 per cent complete. The length of this strip is 11,199 feet.

From this point to the Black Point bridge there is a gap upon which no work whatever has been done. The length of this gap is 4919 feet.

From the east end of the Black Point bridge going towards Sears Point there has been laid 4578 linear feet of the first coarse pavement 3 1/2 inches thick. From the terminal of this 3 1/2 inch coarse asphalt there are 3200 feet of sub-grade ready to receive asphalt.

This gives a percentage of completion on the total job of 45.325 per cent. Figuring at the rate of progress shown since the last report, this places the completion of the job on November 17, 1922, all conditions being favorable. In the event of any breakdown this date would naturally be deferred.

With regard to the auxiliary mixing plant that the contractor has promised to install at Black Point, the frame for the mixing plant has been erected, but at present there is no mixing machinery on the ground. The contractor states that he will have this plant in full operation by August 24th.

The work being performed by the contractor on the roadway is first-class in every particular and no critic-can be made thereon.

This is, of course, limited to the Grant-Smith contract. The object of speed in finishing has not been attained.

Yours respectfully,
H. H. JONES.

NAPA SHOWS INTEREST IN HIGHWAY PROGRESS

H. V. DuBois, prominent dairyman and land owner of Napa county, and George C. Lowell, realtor of Napa city, were in Sonoma Tuesday in the interest of good roads. Mr. DuBois who is an ardent motorist and lives on the dividing line between Napa and Sonoma counties, is greatly interested in the effort being made by Sonoma Valley residents to speed up the work on the Black Point cut-off. He has been following the activities of the local committee through the columns of the Index-Tribune and made a special trip over here to see if there was anything which Napa residents could do to aid the Sonoma road boosters. Messrs. DuBois and Lowell have watched and waited developments on the Black Point cut-off for several years past and declare that it is high time that the Highway Commission completed the job. They asked to have the reports from the engineer in the employ of the Sonoma Valley committee forwarded to them as often as received in order that they can keep Napa Valley residents posted as to the progress on this important thoroughfare linking Napa and Sonoma counties with the bay.

WHAT MURRAY HOPES TO DO

Editor, Index-Tribune:—

It is generally conceded that there is not a chance in the world for Candidate Murray to win out at the primaries in the contest for sheriff.

What's the idea of Murray running has been a question freely asked by all who know his record in Sonoma Valley. How can he hope to get to be sheriff, or anywhere near it, when at the last election Joe Ryan, an official of popularity and recognized ability, failed to win. Ryan came as near being a winner as any Sonoma candidate for county office ever did. How can Jack Murray, with little backing, financial or otherwise, hope to succeed?

What's the answer? Just this:

Murray has a chance to take some votes away from Sheriff Boyes. He is out to spoil Boyes' chances and thus bolster up the candidacy of Dude Wiley, the candidate from Green's Valley. If Wiley wins there is the possibility that Murray will be rewarded with the deputy sheriff's job—the job now held by Deputy Sheriff Joe Ryan. If the voters of Sonoma Valley want to take a chance on losing Joe Ryan, one of the finest and most valuable officers in California, they will "give Murray a chance." If they are satisfied with Ryan and the man whose deputy he is, Sheriff Boyes they will vote for Boyes and KEEP JOE RYAN ON THE JOB.

No voter can afford to give Murray a chance to put over the political trick now pending. Dude Wiley is not even seeking votes in Sonoma Valley. He did not think it worth while to put his political card in either one of the Sonoma papers. Why? Dude Wiley is satisfied that he, being unknown here, would get very few votes away from John Boyes, who has the backing of Joe Ryan and other prominent local politicians. Wiley is well satisfied to let Murray, the candidate from Sonoma, split their field if he can and thus weaken Boyes. If Wiley wins, Murray has a chance to be his deputy, and after all, part of a loaf is better than none, particularly to a $15 per month constable, which is the job now held by Murray, Sonoma Valley's aspirant to the office of sheriff.

The cat is out of the bag—Murray entered the contest to try to take votes away from John Boyes and for his accommodating activity, he hopes to get to be a deputy sheriff. If the plot succeeds, Sonoma Valley may see Joe Ryan ousted in favor of Murray.

Voters, take no chances. Vote for Sheriff John Boyes on August 29th, and thus endorse him and his tried and true deputy, Joe Ryan.

A VOTER.

DEATH OF GEORGE BRUNS POINTS TO FOUL CRIME

small scythe in the ruins of the Bruns home. This implement was introduced in the evidence as having some connection with the wound in the dead man's skull. Witnesses familiar with Bruns' ranch said it was no part of his equipment.

Bruns lived alone following domestic troubles which ended in a divorce case, which is still pending in the Sonoma county courts. His wife and children have been making their home in Haywards.

The cause of the fire was not solved at the inquest. There was testimony to the fact that there was no coal oil stove or other stove lit in the house the night of the tragedy and that Bruns was not smoking. How the fire started is yet to come out.

Bruns' remains were shipped to San Francisco Wednesday morning and were cremated at Mount Olivet.

District Attorney Hoyle believes he has ample evidence to bring James Moore to trial for a crime which has all the earmarks of one of the most fiendish ever perpetrated in Sonoma Valley.

The officers scout the theory that Bruns set the house on fire to commit suicide when he knew that people were on the place who might put out the fire to save him. They believe that Bruns' body crisped to the bed springs where he lay as the fire surrounded him, would have shown some sign of struggle had he been alive when the flames beset him.

Moore has retained Attorney Fulwider of Santa Rosa to clear him of any connection with the crime.

NEW OFFICERS OF SONOMA N. D. G. W.

Sonoma Parlor No. 209, N. D. G. W. held a most charming affair last Monday night when Grand District Deputy President Emma Foley of Marineta Parlor, San Rafael, installed the new officers for the coming term. A large delegation from Petaluma Parlor were in attendance, dressed in gingham dresses and yellow sunbonnets, to advertise the county fair. Several from San Rafael Parlor, including Grand Inside Sentinel Veda Vollers, were also present.

After the meeting, all adjourned to the banquet hall, where brilliantly lit and flower decorated tables laden with delicious and tempting viands awaited them. A fine evening of sociability was enjoyed and I will say that Sonoma Parlor knows how to do things in true California style.

The new officers installed are as follows:

Stella McGill—Past President.
May Chase—President.
Louise Paulson—First Vice President.
Cassie Weyl—Second Vice President.
Almira Leveroni—Third Vice President.
Lenore Fochetti—Organist.
Mae Norrbom—Corresponding Secretary.
Florence Adler—Financial Secretary.
Dorothy Breitenbach—Recording Secretary.
Florence Robin—Marshal.
Clara Fouts, Nellie Peterson and Myrtle Steurmer—Trustees.
Rose Bartoli—Outside Sentinel.
Dorelas Breitenbach—Inside Sentinel.

SONOMA BOOSTERS ARE VISITORS

A big Sunday delegation of Sonoma business men, headed by Secretary Chas. LaTorres and Walter Murphy, of the Sonoma Index-Tribune, waited upon Secretary H. W. Kerrigan of the Chamber of Commerce bright and early Sunday morning and again reassured him of their undivided support in going right to the bat for the fair and boosting it all over the Valley of the Moon.

The famous Sonoma float, which will go after the $500 prize in the great Northern California Day parade next Sunday, is being constructed. The Sonoma business men are sparing neither time nor money to make this float a feature and they believe that it will surely attract the eyes of the judges when they meet to make their final award.

There also will be several good exhibits from Sonoma and the Valley of the Moon, according to Mr. LaTorres.

The apple men and the pear men and several of the thriving business men of Sonoma will be on the job with their products, of which they are very proud. "We realize that this is Sonoma's grand opportunity and we intend to take advantage of it," said LaTorres. "We believe that our float will be the very best one in the parade. We are going to have a surprise for you. We also will have some splendid exhibits and we are rounding up our forces to invade Petaluma and make plenty of noise."

PETALUMA CHICKENS ARE TURNED LOOSE IN S. F.

Petaluma and the Sonoma-Marin county fair got another big boost in San Francisco when a delegation of boosters Monday turned loose fifty live chickens at Powell and Market streets, tied up traffic and generally held the most crowded quarter of San Francisco in a turmoil for half an hour.

While the four winsome lassies in their sunbonnets and their gingham dresses tossed the chickens into the air, 15 youths, all properly garbed in typical hayseed costumes, chased the chickens with nets and the scramble that resulted was a knockover.

Some of the chicks were captured in the nets, only to be turned loose again. This was repeated time and time again and the Powell street chicks and the flappers and the staid business men and everybody else who happened along in the vicinity at the time took a hand in rounding up the prides of Petaluma.

In the meantime Al Herman, the human rooster, was putting over his crowing stuff for the multitude. It went so big that some of the crowd stopped chasing the broilers and started to look around for the rooster. Many of them refused to believe that it was Al, who so cleverly deceived them. They had never heard anything like it.

Five movie picture cameras were in action while the chickens were being chased by the crowd. Some of the birdies hopped on and off the passing Powell street cable cars, and many a flapper and many a hustling, bustling citizen fell over one another in their mad endeavors to capture the prizes.

MISS WILMA HOCKER MARRIED IN OAKLAND

Miss Wilma Hocker, formerly of this place, became the bride of Lloyd Walker, a prominent young resident of Oakland at a pretty ceremony on Saturday evening, at the home of the bride's mother, 58 Monte Vista avenue in Oakland.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Day, pastor of the Congregational church. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chapman, friends of the contracting parties, were the bridal attendants.

Mrs. Walker was born in Sonoma county. Later she moved to Oakland with her mother, Mrs. Lena Hocker, and has resided there for some years. She has occupied a responsible position with the Davies Shipping Company of San Francisco. The bride was a graduate of the class of 1916 of the Santa Rosa high school. She is a talented girl, having devoted much time to the study of music and is the possessor of a splendid voice.

The ring ceremony was used and the bride was attired in a taffeta dress and wore an orange blossom wreath. Mr. Walker is office manager of the Peck & Hill Furniture Company of Oakland, which city has been his home for many years. He is held in high esteem by all who know him, and is popular in social and fraternal circles.

A wedding trip is being enjoyed by the happy couple which will take them by auto to the north as far as Grant's Pass in Oregon, and then they will come down the Humboldt highway to Inglenook where they will be guests for an indefinite time of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chapman at their residence there.

The bride is the daughter of a former school principal of Sonoma, and sister of Miss Bernice Hocker, who taught school at Kenwood a few years ago.

HON. CLARENCE F. LEA

Clarence F. Lea, the representative in congress from this district, is a Democrat registered as a Democrat and has always been a Democrat. If you are a Democrat and want a Democrat in congress, vote for Clarence F. Lea, the Democrat, at the primary election August 29th.

Mr. Lea, a Democratic lawyer and politician, has succeeded by petition in getting his name on the Republican ticket. He is not a Republican, not registered as a Republican and does not claim to be a Republican.

HON. EUVELLE HOWARD

If you are a Republican and want a Republican farmer and business man in place of a Democratic lawyer and politician to represent you in the Republican administration and the Republican congress, vote for Euvelle Howard, the Republican farmer and business man. Mr. Howard is endorsed by the Republican county committees of Colusa, Glenn, Yuba, Sutter, Butte, Del Norte, Humboldt, Mendocino, Sonoma, Lake, Marin and also by big petitions of farmers, business men and working men from all of the above counties.—Humboldt Times, of Eureka, of August 12.—adv.

HOSPITAL IS ASKED FOR ELDRIDGE HOME

A new hospital which is confessedly much needed for the Sonoma State Home at Eldridge, is to be asked of the next legislature by the Board of Managers. This is a building that has been wanted for years, and it is planned to use the present building as an isolation hospital. There is no such hospital at present at the institution.

At a meeting of the Board of Managers a list of the necessary buildings and improvements at the Home was made, and the hospital stands first among the needs. Four more new cottages, to accommodate 60 inmates, and a double cottage are also urgent requirements. Other buildings are to be improved, and if the requests are granted, it will place the institution in good shape when it comes to accommodations for inmates, employees and officials. Better housing for the employees at the institution must be procured.

Several new buildings are being started at the home and will be rushed to completion. These will accommodate many more inmates. The waiting list at the present time is 802, with a population at present being cared for at Eldridge of 1600.

PROGRESS ON SONOMA'S HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING

The contractors are making excellent progress on the new Sonoma Valley Union High School building and with the roof girders now in place the big steel and concrete structure is making a decided impression on all who view it. Contracts have been let for much of the furnishings and the equipment, including the desks and seats for students and teachers, furnished by Wentworth of San Francisco; 300 double folding auditorium seats from Hayward & Wakefield, and Medart lockers for which F. Duhring is the agent. The stationery and the sanitary supplies will be furnished by Clewe and Duhring, of Sonoma.

Much of the present school furniture has been refinished in oak to conform with the new and will be used in the new building.

Charles Weise of Winehaven was the lucky hunter in the Weisse hunting party and brought down the banner buck of the season back of Glen Ellen last week.

MURPHY AND THE COUNTY COMMITTEEMEN

Three Republican county committeemen are to be elected by the voters of the First Supervisorial District at the primaries on August 29th. Among the names on the ballot will be found that of W. L. Murphy, who decided to ask the voters to name him one of the three Republicans chosen, so that he can participate in meetings and caucuses held by the General Republican Committee of Sonoma county. Murphy had no idea of letting his name go on the ballot until he discovered that two of the present local committeemen, George Breitenbach and A. Beretta, were withholding their endorsement of his candidacy for the Sonoma postoffice. Messrs. Breitenbach and Beretta explained first that they had pledged themselves to John Wagon. When Mr. Wagon withdrew, Mr. Murphy asked them to support his candidacy. Mr. Breitenbach evaded and equivocated and it finally became apparent that he was not going to get behind Murphy, although Mr. Murphy is the only bonafide Republican candidate for the postoffice.

One of the three present local Republican county committeemen, A. Monotti, candidate for re-election, is friendly to Murphy's candidacy and with John J. Mohr, and W. L. Murphy are submitting their names at the primaries and request the votes of all Republicans who desire to see Republican fair play. Thos. Roache is also a candidate from the Cotati side of the district.

The Sonoma committee's influence in matters political is very limited but in the event that the Republican county committee as a whole is asked to endorse any candidate for postoffice, the local members of the committee would have a vote and could enter into any discussion in reference thereto. The political cards of Messrs. Monotti, Mohr and Murphy will be found in another column.

FORGED DR. THOMSON'S

NAME TO CONTRACT

A substantial case has been in progress in Tehama county in which two prominent Sonoma professional men have been central figures. Dr. A. M. Thomson, who accused Glen Pettay, a real estate man of Redding of forging his signature to a contract has been there since August 10th, with his attorney, Frank M. Sprague, whose presentation of the case has resulted in Pettay being deprived of his realtor's license. Sprague was acting for the Real Estate Commission of the state of California. Pettay spent two days in jail and was finally admitted to bail in the sum of $5,000.

The forgery alleged to have been committed by Pettay consisted of the signing of A. M. Thomson's name to a real estate contract. Dr. Thomson with his brother Hayne recently sold a ranch in Tehama county and in an attempt to collect a commission the real estate firm caused to be recorded a contract to which Dr. Thomson's signature was appended. Thomson, upon being shown the signature, pronounced it a rank forgery and although recorded, the spurious contract in its original form was photographed and used as evidence against its author. Handwriting experts pronounced the forgery a tracing of Dr. Thomson's signature taken from a letter he had written Pettay rescinding a former contract.

When Thomson made an affidavit to the effect that the signature on the contract was spurious, the affidavit was turned over to the Real Estate Commissioners, with the result that they proceeded against Pettay, establishing their case through the ability and acumen of Sonoma's well known attorney, Frank Sprague.

Messrs. Thomson and Sprague returned from the North Monday evening after an eventful and hazardous trip home, via Humboldt county. They made the journey from Redding via Weaverville into Hay Fork Valley and along the Mad and Van Duesen Rivers. There were many rough roads and steep grades and precipitous canyons. When up on a ledge looking down at a sheer wall 1000 feet below their car collided with a reckless driver's Reo, and the impact damaged both cars badly. No one was hurt.

OUR ATTRACTIVE SERVICE STATION

Landscape gardeners have completed their work around the new Standard Oil service station here and many ornamental plants and shrubs were received this week and have been set out. The Standard Oil station gives Sonoma's main street a modern and attractive aspect and elicits favorable comment and praise from everyone. With the grounds in lawn and ornamental shrubs in bloom, Sonoma can indeed be proud of the improvements made here by the Standard Oil Company.

Note these New Prices on U.S. Tires

ON July 29, 1922, the lowest prices ever quoted on U.S. Passenger Car Tires went into effect—Royal Cords included. These new prices should give confidence to dealers and car owners that no lower basis of quality tire prices will prevail.

Bear in mind that these prices apply to the most complete line of quality tires in the world. Remember, too—as you read the following table—that U. S. quality has been positively maintained.

VINEBURG NEWS

Ernest Figone, one of the leading athletic stars of Lowell High in San Francisco, and a favorite among the young set in this vicinity was the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Batto over the week end.

Mrs. Fred Batto and son returned home on Thursday after a pleasant visit in San Francisco.

Cedric Cutter, our progressive orchardist, is a very busy man at present and his apple dryer is running at full capacity. If Vineburg does not shine in the dried apple market, it is not Teddy's fault.

We had the pleasure of being one of the party that accompanied Fred Batto on a week end trip to the Summit of the Sierra Nevada. The other members of the party were Clifford J. Estment and Albert Groskopf. After 56 years residence in the Golden State and traveling over most of it, we thought we had seen California. But there is just where we made a mistake. We never saw the pine covered, lake dotted, granite walled mountains and fertile valleys of that artists' paradise and poets' dream, the Sierra Nevada mountains, and the trip will ever be in our mind as one of its moments of sunshine and beauty.

Miss Evelyn Batto returned home last Saturday after a pleasant week's visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. August Figone, of San Francisco.

A pleasant week end gathering was held on last Sunday at the home of Mrs. B. Groskopf of Whispering Pines. The guests were Messrs. Charles Gander, Theodore Gander, Charles Selinger and Carl Selinger, Mesdames Gander and Selinger, Misses Clarice Gander and Lucy Selinger, all of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Groskopf, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Groskopf, Alice Groskopf and Mrs. Leona Batto of Vineburg. A pleasant day was enjoyed by all.

Fred Batto, Jr., and sister, Miss Emily have returned home after their vacation.

While coming down through Humboldt county, Dr. Thomson and Attorney Sprague met Harry Knight, who was on a fishing trip in that paradise for sportsmen. Harry reported that he was getting his share of the trout.

Mrs. Cazes, of the Maison Doree, has been ill and under the care of Dr. W. B. Hays.

ago, and has always been active in the work of the church.

We loved her—yes, we loved her; But angels loved her more, And they have sweetly called her, To yonder shore.

The golden gates were opened, A gentle voice said: "Come." And with farewells unspoken She entered Home.

The funeral took place Sunday afternoon from the family residence and was largely attended. There was a profusion of flowers, silent but beautiful tokens of esteem and, in his simple, but heartfelt tribute to the silent form in the casket, Rev. S. E. Crowe paid fitting tribute to the deceased. Two favorite hymns, Face to Face, and Abide With Me, were sweetly rendered, Mrs. Ida Hotz being the soloist. Interment was in Mountain Cemetery.

Among the handsome floral pieces were those sent by the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, the Flying Needles, Congregational Ladies' Aid Society and Verdant Degree Rebekah Lodge.

The pallbearers were Frank Meyers, George Daunt, George Lowell, Ralph Hotz, H. Irby and Charles La Torres.

Stability starts with the crude

One of the most important requirements of a good motor oil is that it possess stability—that is, that it maintain its chemical composition and its lubricating body under all conditions of engine operation.

If an oil changes its chemical composition—"breaks down"—at high operating temperatures, it can no longer maintain a lubricating film between the bearing surfaces, and its value as a lubricant is destroyed.

Certain crude oils possess a higher degree of stability than others. Because of its large production of practically every type of crude, this company is free to choose for the making of Zerolene only those crudes which are particularly adapted for the purpose.

The Patented Vacuum Process

In the process of distilling and refining these selected crudes, it is of the greatest importance not to destroy their natural "oiliness" and stability. For this reason we employ our own patented high-vacuum process exclusively. By this process the oil produced—Zerolene—retains all the natural "oiliness" and stability of the original, selected crude from which it is made.

No other refiner on the Pacific Coast uses any form of vacuum distillation. No other refiner in the United States uses as high a vacuum as this company.

Zerolene of the correct grade for your car gives perfect lubrication and permits the development of maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage.
